

Fact Finder: Features of Conservation Education Programs Relevant to Time-based Media Art

University of Applied Sciences Berlin, Germany

Organization and location	HTW – University of Applied Sciences Berlin
Home page	https://krg.htw-berlin.de/studium/studienschwerpunkte/audiovisuelles-und-fotografisches-kulturgut-moderne-medien-avf/
Language of teaching	German
Degrees	BA/MA
Specialization	Audiovisual and Photographic Heritage
Relevant to TBM art conservation	Includes moving image and sound restoration
Admission requirements	University entrance qualification or equivalent; DSH1/B2 German certificate
Admission process	Enrollment portfolio, interview, formal enrollment
Tuition and fees	No tuition; current semester fee: EUR 305,89
Student support	Consultation with the tracks' professors, international office, coaching, psychological counseling
Additional sources of income and support	For MA: suitable scholarships; on occasion, student assistant positions
Duration of study	7 semesters (BA), 3 semesters (MA)
Program overview	https://krg.htw-berlin.de/studium/
Alumni achievements	Positions in international archives
Further information	https://www.synoptique.ca/files/ugd/811df8_d9caacdc78cc46539952e5aa1a3bb4b6.pdf
Last update	July 24, 2022